D'MORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

FOR GENITAL BEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTI-NENCE, OR NOOTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Lors of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prestration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered. In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, less of MEMORY, CONFULION, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. hich has attended this invaluable med some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable This, however, is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured

the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, precured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly pessible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital; but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recomment it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are gamerally such as to leave the publication of certificates of curse out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimeny to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS
have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS
given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been abandoned;
and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken's; but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas,) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am astisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be curred; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procursed some of your Cordial. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect year Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

CAUTION—Ask for Dr. More's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not burt the most delicate female, but do good. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in plut bottles, with the words Dr. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Boyal College of Surgeons, Loudon, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

habit, which rule both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Binness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Deraugement of the Digestive Functions, General Deblity, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Neil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar tits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

ECONOMY IN COPYING LETTERS.

DOUGLASE'S CHINESE COPYING INK, without the use of the press, is a great improvement over the usual method by the press, and at about one-tenth the cost. A perfect copy can be taken in a minute by the smallest boy in a store; and the ink is durable, and becomes jet black. It is destined to supersede the use of the press, both from its advantage of sconomy and the distinctness of the transferred copies. WIMER is the sole agent for the District: 6th street, nea

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

CELDOM have I taken up a book of biography with which I have been so well pleased and really profited as with Wesley and his Coadjutors, by Prof. Larrabee. Those pure pages sparhle like diamonds, with strange as well as beautiful incidents, touching in turn every chord of the human heart, and arousing its latent energies to deeds of noble during. Wesley is whibited as he really was, a most wonderful man; wonderful principally as an agent of Providence in reviving pure religion in the world.

The second volume opens with Charles Wesley, that prince of lyric poets, who is made to pass before the reader so well-defined that he seems to see his form and hear his volce, and be thrilled with hissublime hymms, a rich legacy left to the Church in all after time.

Whitefield, the peorless orator and devoted Christian next appears, with his matchless powers, srousing Great Britain and America with an eloquence and unction that literally bore down all before it, turning the people to God by thousands, till from the most degraded—degraded be cause forsaken of their religious teachers—plants of right consense were seen springing up and sdorning the garden of the Lord. John Fletcher closes the list of notable worthies in the two volumes before us, and every way worthy is he to do it. He is made to pacs along in his own incomparable, beautiful simplicity, with a houness all but superhuman, possessing taients that an angel might have envied; the neutest and ablest controversalist writer of his own or any subsequent age.—Zion's Heraid.

Leading Events of Mr. Webster's Life. Daniel Webster, the youngest son of Ebene-zer and Abigail Webster, was born at Salisbury, in New Hampshire, on the 18th of January, 1782, the last year of the Revolutionary per cent. War. He was, therefore, aged seventy years, nine months, and six days, when he died. In May, 1796, and in his 14th year, he was sent to the Exeter Academy, where he remained only a few months. In February, 1797, and in his 15th year, he was sent to reside and study with the Rev. Samof Boscawen, where, for his board and tuition, his father paid $1 per week.

In the fall of the same year he entered Dart nouth College.

In 1801 he completed his college course, and entered upon the study of law in the office of Mr. Thompson, a next door neighbor of his father, a respectable lawyer, and subsequently a Representative of New Hampshire in both Houses of Congress. Part of the year 1802 he spent in teaching an academy at Fryeburg, in Maine, on a salary of $1 a day, acting at the same time as assistant to the Register of Deeds for the county.

In September, 1802, he resumed his studies with Mr. Thompson, and remained with him In July, 1804, he took up his residence in Boston, and pursued his studies with Christopher Gore. ty, Boston. The same year he opened a law office at Boscawen, near his father's residence. In May, 1807, he was admitted as attorney and counsellor of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire. In September, 1807, he removed to Portsmouth, where he continued in the practice of the profession nine years. In June, 1808, he was married to Grace Fletcher, daughter of Rev. Mr. Fletcher, of Hopkinton. New Hampshire, by whom he had four children-Grace, Fletcher, Julia, and Edward, of whom only Fletcher now survives. Grace died early, Edward was killed in the Mexican war; Julia married one of the Appletons, of Boston, and died a few years since June 10th, 1813, (an extra session,) he made his maiden speech, on moving a series of reso-

A Mistake all around. The "Bizare" tells the following good story A person, who wore a suit of homespun clothes stepped into a house in this city, on some business, where several ladies and gentlemen were assembled in an inner room. One of the company remarked in a low tone, though sufficiently loud to be overheard by the stranger, that a countryman was in waiting, and agreed to make some fun.

The following table talk ensued: You're from the country, I suppose

'Yes, I'm from the country."
"Weil, sir, what do you think of the city?" "It's got a darned sight o' houses in it. "I expect there are a great many ladies where "Wall, yes, a powerful sight, jest for all the world like them there," (pointing to the ladies.)

"And you are quite a beau among them, no "Well. I escort them to meeting, and about." "Maybe the gentleman will take a glass of wine," said one of the company. "Wall, don't care if I do. But you must drink a toast. "I cats tonst what Aunt Debby makes, but as drinkin' it, I never seed the like. "Oh, you must drink their health! "Wi' all my heart." Ladies and gentlemen, permit me to wish you health and happiness, with every other bles-sing this earth can afford, and advise you to bear in mind that we are often deceived in appearances. You mistook me, by my dress, for a country booby : I, from the same cause, thought these

VALUE OF A LIBRARY TO A POOR STUDENT. One of the most interesting incidents in the early history of the famous men of our country is related of Dr. Bowditch, the learned tra slater of August 2, 1826, he delivered his eulogy on La Place. During the revolutionary war, a priibrary was among the articles on board. June, 1827, he was elected to the United books were a rare prize for those days, and young Bowditch borrowed a number from the person having them in charge. The volumes were redied, while accompanying him on his way to tained longer than was necessary for a simple perusal; and it was ascertained that the young student was desirous of procuring the works, and protection, on the "Bill of Abominations," as it was called, embodying what has since been of purchasing them, and he actually copied twenty were of great service to him as books of reference in after years. The manuscript volumes are

The facilities now afforded students in the branch of science to which the talents of Dr. speech in reply to Hayne, which Mr. Everett Bowditch were devoted appear in striking contrast with the early struggles for knowledge which he encountered .- Boston Transcript. During the summer of 1888, a landlord was tried before Judge Hawkins, (who sat on a decayed stump in front of the hotel,) for selling liquor in quantities less than a gallon, being contrary to the law of the State, (Mississippi.) The process commenced—"Prisoner, are you guilty or not guilty?" "Not guilty," was the reply. Prisoner," exclaimed the judge, " you know hat's a lie, for I have drank in your house more han twenty times a day myself!
